WHAT: Mass flyering action

WHEN: Thursday, October 4th at 8pm

WHERE: Pastis, 9 9th Ave, Manhattan

WHY: This is the kickoff of our second leafleting campaign, which targets customers who use Wild Edibles as a seafood supplier. Workers at Wild Edibles recently announced their membership in the IWW. Five workers were fired for their involvement in the union.

IMPORTANT: The nonprofit workers' center, Brandworkers International, has sent Pastis a letter requesting the restaurant sign a contract stating that they will stop using Wild Edibles as a supplier. The bosses at Pastis are well aware of what they are being asked to do.

The IWW is leafleting outside Pastis, but is not the group who is requesting the contract with Pastis. If anyone from Pastis attempts to talk to you, simply say, "You know what you need to do," and say no more.
